Choir Personnel

DR. WILLIAM A. GLEASON received a D.M.A. in Choral Music from Arizona State University. He also holds a B.S. in Music Education and an M.M.A. in Choral Conducting from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Dr. Gleason taught vocal and general music for ten years in Illinois at both the junior high and high school levels. After serving as a graduate teaching assistant at Arizona State University for two years, he has taught at Chandler-Gilbert Community College and the Avondale Elementary School District. He is presently teaching music in the Glendale Elementary School District. Dr. Gleason has served as choral director at churches in Illinois and Arizona for over twenty years and conducted the Choralaires of Phoenix men's chorus. As a choral singer, Dr. Gleason has traveled extensively including trips to Carnegie Hall in New York, Mexico City, and Europe on concert tours. He has also served as a clinician and adjudicator in Illinois and Arizona.

KENT TROSTEL has been accompanist for the Arizona Masterworks Chorale since 2000. A native of Ohio, Trostel studied piano at the Idyllwild School of Music and the Arts and holds a degree in Music Performance from the Peabody Conservatory. This past season, Kent accompanied the winner of the Yavapai Symphony Association Young Artist Concerto Competition in performance at the Phippen Western Museum. Kent also performed with the Prescott Center for the Arts Singers for the Veterans Day Annual Concert at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University and in concerts at the Prescott Resort and Center for the Arts. Kent recently accompanied baritone Mark Walters and tenor Joseph Wolverton representing Arizona Opera.

GRAPHIC DESIGNER FOR THE ARIZONA
MASTERWORKS CHORALE

GRAPHIX BY KATHY

GraphixbyKathy@gmail.com

For over 32 years, THE ARIZONA MASTERWORKS CHORALE has thrilled audiences with our devotion to – and love for – excellent choral music. In London, Munich, Carnegie Hall, Washington, DC and Valley-wide, we have been recognized for both the quality of our performances and the breadth of our presentations.

We were affiliated with the Phoenix Symphony from 1979 to 1996. And for ten seasons, the Chorale performed with the Flagstaff Festival of the Arts Orchestra.

Other significant venues included the BBC Concert Orchestra at Royal Festival Hall and the Bavarian State Radio Orchestra in Munich. Those concerts were broadcast throughout Europe.
