The Arizona Masterworks Chorale

DR. WILLIAM A. GLEASON received a D.M.A. in Choral Music from Arizona State University. He also holds a B.S. in Music Education and an M.M.A. in Choral Conducting from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Dr. Gleason taught vocal and general music for ten years in Illinois at both the junior high and high school levels. After serving as a graduate teaching assistant at Arizona State University for two years, he has taught at Chandler - Gilbert Community College and the Avondale Elementary School District. He currently teaches music in the Peoria Unified School District and also serves as Director of Music for First Presbyterian Church of Sun City. Dr. Gleason has served as choral director at churches in Illinois and Arizona for over twenty years and conducted the Choralaires of Phoenix men's chorus. As a choral singer, Dr. Gleason has traveled extensively including trips to Carnegie Hall in New York, Mexico City, and Europe on concert tours. He has also served as a clinician and adjudicator in Illinois and Arizona.

KENT TROSTEL has been accompanist for the Arizona Masterworks Chorale since 2000. A native of Ohio, Trostel studied piano at the Idyllwild School of Music and the Arts and holds a degree in Music Performance from the Peabody Conservatory. Kent was accompanist with the West Valley Chorale for twelve seasons, including premiers of commissioned choral works and being featured soloist in Beethoven's Choral Fantasy with orchestra. This past season, Kent accompanied the Prescott League Friends of Arizona Opera Salon and the Prescott Center for the Arts Singers at the Prescott Resort. Kent performs with vocalist Earl Hazell in a recent segment of Arizona Horizon on PBS.
